

Ready Confetti

(Mixed with a sprinkle of jitter glitter)

~~~~~

The night before school is exciting and fun,
There's always so many things to be done!
Your clothes are ready, your backpack is too.
Your classroom is full of fun things you will do!
Lots of questions go through your mind,
All types of thoughts of every kind.
But sometimes we all get the jitters down deep
And that makes it hard to fall fast asleep!
So I've made this magic confetti for you,
Full of promises for the whole school year through.
On the night before school when you lay down your head,
Just sprinkle this confetti all around your bed!
The confetti will help you sleep through the night
And wake up in the morning feeling fresh and bright!
I'll sprinkle some around my bed too,
Because I am super excited to see you, too! ♥

Sweet dreams kindergartner,

Love, Mrs. Cook ☺
