

Final Project: Poetry Portfolio Checklist

- I have used Ms. Napoliello's formatting example and mine looks exactly as shown on the example.
- I have an MLA cover page that follows the example Ms. Napoliello gave.
- My theme statement is written on my cover page as the title.
- My first page of the portfolio, excluding the cover page, is the abstract.
- My abstract is at least 200 words.
- It explains my theme statement and how my poems connect to that theme statement. It also explains my inspiration for and organization of the poems.
- My free verse poem has at least five labeled literary devices.
- My choice poem has at least four labeled literary devices.
- I have not used any literary devices more than once.
- All of my literary devices are from this unit.
- I have been creative and original in my planning and writing of this final project.
- I have reached out to Ms. Napoliello if I had any questions.
- I have closely looked over the assignment sheet, rubric, and example multiple times to ensure I know exactly what is expected of me.
- I have shared my project with Ms. Napoliello before 6:00 on Wednesday, May 20th.
