Meet Bus Driver Steve Carver

AT A GLANCE...

Steve has transported Johnstown-Monroe Local Schools' students for more than a decade.

He is one of the two longest-serving bus drivers within our district.

He currently drives Route 4.

Steve is also a Johnstown-Monroe Alum, "Class of '79."

"I drive a lot of the sports teams. I liked taking the band up to the State Championship in Canton. That was a great time. That was fun."

Steve Carver grew up in Johnstown, he graduated from Johnstown-Monroe High School, and for more than a decade he has taken pride and enjoyment from transporting its students to-and-from school. He spent about a year driving for Northridge before coming to Johnstown-Monroe.

For Steve, it's "all about the kids. I like kids and I like driving." Satisfaction comes from "communicating with the kids and just getting them back and forth, safely. I have a good route."

Along with long-time fellow driver Wayne Johnson ("We are the dinosaurs; we are the originals," the two agreed, laughing), he particularly enjoys driving students for sporting and music competitions. That means a lot of evening and weekend work, but Steve said it remains a joy. Illustrating that dedication, he said, "I'll be driving for a basketball game, tomorrow."
